RAILWAY
COMPANION

CAUTION.

Several SHOPKEEPERS of apparent respectability, for the sake of gaining a trifle more profit, basely attempt to impose their per-nicious compounds upon the public as the real "MACASSAR OIL" for the Hair, and "KALYDOR" for the Complexion they copy the bills and labels of the original articles, substituting either a FICTITIOUS NAME, or the word "GENUINE," in the place of "ROWLAND'S."

To frustrate such imposition—it is necessary in purchasing either article, to see that the word "ROWLAND'S" is on the wrapper.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

FOR

RAILWAY TRAVELLERS.

The Doors of the booking offices are closed at the precise times appointed for starting the Trains, and Passengers should be at the intermediate Stations at least ten minutes before the specified times of departure.

It is very desirable that Passengers should have their name and destination stated in full on their luggage, and to mark the number of the carriage on which it is deposited—light luggage may be taken into the carriage. The Companies do not hold themselves responsible for luggage unless booked and paid for according to its value. The weight generally allowed each passenger is about 60lbs for second class, and 100lbs for first class passengers.

Preserve your Ticket until called for by the Companies' servant.

Post Horses may be readily obtained at each terminus, and at most of the principal Stations.

. Carriage Trucks and Horse Boxes are kept at all the principal Stations, but to prevent disappointment, it is recommended that notice be given the day previous to their being required, and they ought to be at the Station Twenty minutes before the time of starting.

At each terminus Omnibuses, Coaches, and Cabs are generally waiting the arrival of Trains.

Infants in arms, unable to walk, not charged, and children under Ten Years of age only half fare.

Dogs, at a small charge for each, are conveyed in a proper vehicle, but are not allowed to be taken inside the carriages.

Smoking not allowed at the Stations, nor in any of the carriages.

No fees or gratuities are allowed to be received by any of the Companies' servants, but they are strictly enjoined to pay every attention to the convenience of passengers.

Do not lean upon the door of the carriage, nor attempt to get out whilst it is in motion.

Fares of Carriages plying as stages between Dublin and Kingstown:—

For an inside seat in a Coach or Caravan, drawn by two or more horses 1 6 |

For an outside seat on same 0 8 |

Those carriages cannot be compelled to leave Kingstown road, except by private agreement.

All carriages to travel at the rate of five miles per hour, at the least.

Carriages are deemed on their stand wherever met, provided they be not at the time actually engaged.

A set-down implies going to any of the places, rated, and returning with the employer, provided there be not a delay of more than fifteen minutes.

If there be a delay of more than fifteen minutes caused by the employer at any place rated, the driver may charge the set-down there, and for every half-hour after, at the same rate as if taken by the hour.

Drivers of carriages or cars have the choice of being paid either the fare to any of the places rated, or by the hour; but in no case to exceed a day's fare.

Each carriage or car to carry four grown persons and 30lbs. of luggage, or a child on the lap, and no more, except by agreement with the driver.

The owners and drivers of carriages and cars are required by the Magistrates to have a book of the fares always with them when employed by the public, to produce to them for their information, and any driver neglecting to have such book of fares, or refusing to produce it when demanded, by the person hiring the same, is liable to a penalty of twenty shillings.
